PCASCHOOL.ORG/ANNUAL-AUCTION

This year, as a way to more deeply explore our Auction theme of the sacredness of holidays, we are encouraging the PCA community to create their own sacred ornament. The ornament must illuminate the Christian origins, or holy aspects of: Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, or Fourth of July.

Submissions must be light enough to hang from a tree and may be made of any material. Please ensure that the ornament can hang freely from either a hook, ribbon or other hanging device. We will display these treasures on Auction morning for our community to enjoy. As this is a contest, we will have winners from a variety of age groups with prize money awarded.

These ornaments are not for sale, but will be returned to the creators after the Auction, so they may be enjoyed for years to come.

Deadline for the Sacred Ornament Contest is Monday, March 4 at 4 PM. If your ornament is fragile, please ensure that it is carefully wrapped and protected when dropped off. Please be sure to clearly mark your ornament with your name, grade, and teacher (if you are a student) and attach the ornament submission form to your ornament. Please direct any questions to Ann Kohl at wkohl72@gmail.com.

As you create sacred ornaments, may you learn more about our loving God, the One who created holidays to be holy celebrations for us to enjoy throughout the year.
