What is an Eagle Tweet?

LS Yearbook Eagle Tweets are short text only messages that friends, grandparents, and, of course, parents of students in PCAP—7th grade can place to express their love, support or congratulations for a specific student. And Tweets are not just for students, would you like to say “Thanks” or “I’ll miss you” to a special teacher or staff member? Tweet it!

Eagle Tweets are text only; limited to a maximum of 15 words; and, must include the first initial and last name of the recipient.

Examples might be: “Johnny S., We are so proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad.”

“Mrs. Murray, You are the best! Love, Liz P.”

Eagle Tweets are just $7 and are limited to space availability! To place a Tweet, complete the form below and return with payment to the front desk or the Lower School office. You can also email your content to yearbook@ctiemann.com ... just don’t forget to send in your payment!
